

Luxury Bhutan Hotels

Zhiwa Ling Resort Paro

The first 5 star resort in the Paro Valley to be owned and operated by a Bhutanese enterprise. The 45-room Zhiwa Ling combines the sensibilities of a fine Bhutanese guesthouse with the best of 21st Century technology. Envisioned and created by a local Bhutanese company, the hotel's elaborate hand-carved wooden cornices and masterful stonework coexist beautifully with cutting-edge telecommunication systems and Swedish under-floor heating.

The spa offers all the amenities of a modern fitness centre – sauna, steam room, gym – as well as a traditional Bhutanese outdoor hot-stone bath. There is a Business Centre, and a Tea House, two fully-equipped conference rooms and a Meditation House. One restaurant specializes in contemporary international cuisine, the other classic Bhutanese dishes. And everyone gathers at the Mad Monk Bar for after-hours fun.

Please refer to Zhiwa Ling Resort

Uma Resort Paro

The 5 star resort is uniquely located on a pine covered hillside close to Paro, the country's cultural heart. The 29 room Uma Paro is surrounded by orchards, valleys and terraced mountains. It may lie in a hidden Himalayan kingdom, however when it comes to detail guests used to the highest standards of luxury will feel at home. Built by traditionally trained Bhutanese artisans the hotel is infused with clean lined modernism whilst maintaining the feel of a Bhutanese village melding into the Blue Pine forest on the cliffs above. Watch the moon rise and the sun set and be moved by the uplifting sense of quiet.

The retreat facilities include, 4 spa treatment rooms - the treatments offered are Asian inspired holistic therapies, yoga pavilion, steam rooms, hydro pool, hot stone bath house, gym and indoor pool with outdoor sundeck. Business centre with library and internet service and a conference meeting room for 16 people. The restaurant 'Bukhari' is housed in a circular pavilion set among tall pine trees with floor to ceiling windows and a bukhari fireplace at its centre and serves traditional Bhutanese & Indian cuisine. Guests can also dine beside the pool or at the bar, and for those wishing total privacy in room dining is available.

Please refer to Uma Paro Resort

Amankora Luxury Lodges

These small lodges, owned and operated by the internationally acclaimed Aman Resorts represent the pinnacle of luxury in Bhutan and are a 5 star + standard.

Amankora Paro

The first of a series of Amankora lodges sited in Bhutan's main valleys, Amankora, Paro is the commencement of a path through pristine landscapes, ancient dzongs and secluded villages, a cycle of discovery beneath the peaceful presence of Himalayan peaks such as Jhomolhari.

Amankora Punakha

Situated east of the Dochu La Pass and just north of the impressive Punakha Dzong and the private summer residence of His Majesty the King, Amankora Punakha is reached by crossing a suspension bridge over the Mo Chhu (Mother River). More than 85% of the district is forested with a mixture of conifer and broadleaf trees.

Amankora Gangtey

Located in the little visited Phobjikha Valley near the unspoilt village of Gangtey the eight-suite Amankora Gangtey is set on a forested hill with scenic views of the valley floor and the dominant 16th century Gangtey Goempa (monastery). The valley is part of the Black Mountains National Park, one of Bhutan's most important wildlife sanctuaries.

Amankora Thimphu

Set in a blue pine forest in the upper reaches of the Motithang area of the adjacent Thimphu Valley, the 16-suite Amankora Thimphu is close to the capital's sights and shopping while remaining a peaceful retreat.

Amankora Journey

Please refer to the Amankora Lodges